

School House

A pioneer-era schoolhouse has been reconstructed using squared logs taken from a Huntington County house which was originally built about 1870. It has been furnished as a schoolhouse from the 1880s. Periodically staffed by volunteers, lessons are taught in the same way they would have been taught on the frontier a hundred years ago. Children find the Pioneer Schoolhouse a fascinating place to visit.